

THE LEGEND

Lancaster Township Junior High School

Foreword

There are many doors in life that open up to new and bigger opportunities. In order to open these doors of opportunities, one must have the exact key that fits the lock - that key is education.

Our stay at the Lancaster Township Junior High School as reviewed through THE LEGEND has been a rewarding and promising one. It has given us, the Class of 1966, a key to open another door of learning.

The LEGEND STAFF

OUR SCHOOL BOARD

HAS SERVED FAITHFULLY AND DILIGENTLY

To the Class of 1966:

You are about to go out one important door in your journey through school, and to enter another important one. If you stop a moment to think of it, many of you have completed well over half of your education --- and for some, the course is even more nearly complete. We, all of us, -- parents, teachers, and administrators -- are proud of you for your present achievements and for the enthusiasm for learning that you have displayed. CONGRATULATIONS!

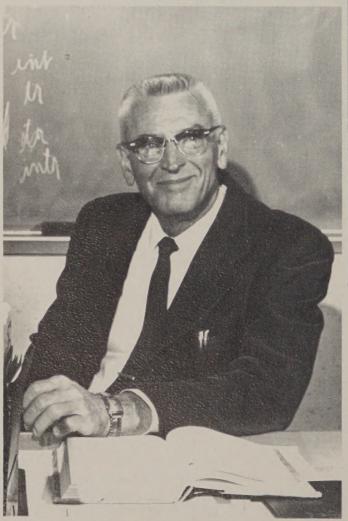

We hope you will never lose that enthusiasm. For each of you, a world of exciting adventure lies ahead. As you explore this world and grow into your place in it, we like to think that you will look back once in a while, to remember your friends at Lancaster Township Junior High. We will be happy with you in your accomplishments, and understanding of your mistakes. As you continue to grow and learn, we wish you the utmost in happiness and success.

For the Board of Education James T. Bergen, President 3

For Their Untiring Guidance

WE DEDICATE

To Mr. Fred S. Engle for his outstanding contribution to education as our Supervising Principal; he will also be remembered for the years he devoted to the training of the boys in the Physical Education Department and for the winning Basketball teams he coached at L.T.

To Mr. Charles H. Gladfelter for his devoted work as a teacher of English, for the years spent in making the study of Latin enjoyable to hundreds of pupils, and for the countless hours spent as advisor to the QUILL STAFF.

And For Their Steadfast Interest.

THE LEGEND, 1966

To Mr. Theodore R. McComsey for his diligent service to our school as Principal. He will also be remembered for the years he spent in the classroom as a teacher of mathematics and Industrial Arts.

For his vibrant interest in the teaching of mathematics, for his patience and concern, and for his leadership in the Stamp Club, we dedicate the Legend to Mr. Earl F. Kochenour.

In appreciation of her many years of faithful service and many contributions to the Legend, we the Class of 1966 proudly dedicate our yearbook to Mrs. Dorothy H. Bolbach.

MOTTO
"He who has knowledge spareth his words"

CLASS POEM
by Mary Light

We entered these hallowed halls to learn For knowledge and wisdom must be earned. We must go on to more halls of learning For in our youth for more knowledge we're yearning. You did your share of toil and strife To help us face the trials of life. And we will go forward to battle our way To meet the endless goals of today.

Ever so faithful we shall be To our dear and wonderful old L.T. Our fond and happy memories here Will be locked in our hearts forever, so dear.

Class Officers

OUR MEMBERS SERVE

The officers are gathered around our School Seal that was designed by Mrs. Anna Kauffman, who was an art teacher in the Township for 17 years. She retired in 1955 and died one year later. The drawing of the seal was sent to the Armstrong Cork Company where it was printed and carved by Mr. Brunner, who is deceased, but at that time was a neighbor of the Junior High School. Therefore, the Seal is of considerable sentimental value to us having been designed and made by Township people.

THEY ENTERTAIN

"Who Killed Aunt Caroline?" was presented November 17, 1965 under the direction of Mrs. Audrey Brodsky. Members of the cast included Margaret Zellers, Marilyn Richmond,

John Ashbey, Elizabeth Haines, Marian Kadushin, Vicki Newswanger, Lois Bowen, Robert Siegel, Richard Atwater, Kathy Loew, Judith Gordon and Peter Simpson.
